TOBACCO SETTERS!

One year ago today Tobacco Transplanters sold in Mayville at $60 because The Price Fighter was not in the tobacco settler business. Today The Price Fighter enters and gently trims the price down to $42.90. All the picnic is over. Surely this is enough to cause a deep and painful breath. The Price Fighter controls Mason, Bracken and Fleming counties for a latest improved tobacco setting machine—a machine that embodies all the good features of the older style machines, with some of their best features—a machine that is guaranteed to work—a machine that is sold upon its merits. The Price Fighter has contracted for a carload of these machines for spot cash, and after trimming off all the superfluous profit finds that he can sell 'em for $42.90 and still make his little 10 per cent. He bought 'em right and is in position to undersell the world. Of course competitors will have to offer you some excuse for asking old time war prices. Examine its improved features. Some will offer the old worn out gag of a better machine, but beware! Poison! Listen! Call and look at the 1920 Tobacco Setter. They have long since celebrated his entrance in the Furniture and Wagon business. You can fool some of the people all of the time; you can fool all of the people some of the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time. We have been discovered and we are happy; so are all the people.

Malta Double-Shovel Plows at $1.95

The war is over, but some people don't know it.

DISC HARROWS

We have received a carload of those new-style up-to-date Disc Harrows that have thirteen discs peculiarly hung so that they cut out all the center and level the ground instead of throwing the dirt away from the center. They leave no ridge in the center. We paid spot cash for the carload and can undersell the world. If you would just as soon have the old style we have them too as low as $15.

STEEL ROOFING!

We have on hands two carloads of STEEL ROOFING! bought some time since when it was much lower and can name the lowest price on earth. We will put a crimp in the price of V Crimp Roofing.

Yesterday's steady downpour of rain caused the river at this point to come up a little, and a slight rise above will give a little more water to the low part of the river.

The new city of Pittsburgh, which has been selected to leave Pittsburgh for New Orleans for several weeks, left that city for the South yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She has an elegant trip of freight and passengers, and will be considerable at Cincinnati and way landings. She will pass this city Thursday afternoon or Friday morning.

The recent high water in the Kentucky river caused the banks to slip more than was ever known before. While about to pass through Lock No. 3, the steamer Mary Lucy began to rise and settle like a horse on a hurdle race. It was found that an acre of ground and trees had slipped in just behind her, reaching nearly to the middle of the river. It was a debatable question whether the boat would go through the lock or jump over the gates.

Rough river has begun to rise and the lowlands are under water. Oscar Backlist, clerk on the steamer Scott, reported that the conditions were favorable to a flood. The river has spread out over a great deal of territory and is many miles wide in some places. The farmers may lose a great deal of corn, and they have taken time by the forelock by removing their stock. The rise cannot last long, as the river is small and when the tide begins it will be very rapid.

The steamboatmen of the reported combination of the steamship line and the river interests of the Monongahela Valley. It was learned from an authoritative source that 95 per cent of the steamships had to go to the Pittsburgh attorneys and brokers said to be conducting the deal a schedule of their property. It is said that C. Justice & Co. and Captain W. R. Rodgers are among the most enthusiastic supporters of the combination scheme, and that S. S. Crump & Co. are also interested.

GRIPPE FROM 'PHONES

Profuse Source of Infection as Shown by a New York Doctor.

Germs Coughed and Sneezed into the Mouthpiece and Then Given Out to New and Old Victims.

If scientists are to be believed, the telephone is a constant menace to the public health and the abode of grippé germs. This is what Dr. E. John Kaufmann, of 56 West Thirty-third street, New York city, said:

"More cases of grippé have been coughed and sneezed into the telephone, to be contracted by the next user of the instrument, than have proceeded from all other sources combined."

"There has been much speculation," he went on, "as to the causes of the recent epidemic of grippé, which has not yet spent its force. Together with one of the leading bacteriologists of the city, I visited several of the finest hotels, and also a number of the public telephone exchanges. I mounted some clean cotton on a piece of wire and rubbed it around the inside of the mouthpiece of the telephone receiver. I made a lot of these exhibits, placing each one in a small bottle and carefully corking it so that there could be nothing on the cotton but the scraping from the receivers. Then the cotton balls were taken in hand by the bacteriologist. The result was we found a multitude of the grippé bacilli.

"There are 45,000 telephones at least in New York, and I figure that there have been from 35,000 to 40,000 cases of grippé. I will tell you why there has not been more contagion from this source. It does not follow that everyone that uses the telephone is susceptible to the grippé, and the same is true of all diseases proceeding from germs."

"There should be a reform now that it is certain that the grippé at least is contracted from telephone receivers, and the receivers should be kept clean."

Chicago physicians take issue with the New York scientist whose statement that the epidemic of grippé in that city was due largely to microbes coughed and sneezed into public telephones by sufferers. The majority appear to believe that the New York scientists were insufficiently familiar with both the grippé and the telephones. The chief objection was from the manner in which disease can be transmitted by germs.

Dr. T. A. Davis had never heard of the telephone story, but when he declined to agree with the New York physicians.

"Grippé is a contagious disease," he said, "and I cannot see why it is not transmitted by germs lodging in a telephone transmitter."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
